

SAMRUK-TABIGAT
Limited Liability Partnership

106/1 Skorobogatov street, Uralsk, Western Kazakhstan Region, Republic of Kazakhstan, IIC KZ02856000000529383, BIC KCJBKZKX in the Uralsk
Branch of JSC Bank CenterCredit in Uralsk. BIN 060340005884, TIN 270100231287, Tel/Fax: 8(7112) 24-19-22

HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT POLICY

SAMRUK -TABIGAT LLP provides services related to:

- design works, project management, supply, production, assembly and construction of pipelines, pipelines assembly works, general construction works, landscaping and construction of car roads.

OUR PRIORITY GOALS ARE:

- effective control over production risks and significant environmental aspects;
- prevention of accidents and continuous improvement of industrial safety, occupational safety and environment;
- rational use of natural resources involved in production;
- ensuring occupational safety and health of the Company's employees in the production process.

These priority goals are ensured through the following obligations:

- comply with requirements of legislation on health, occupational safety and environment;
- make managerial decisions and conduct production processes by taking into account environmental aspects, production, occupational and fire hazards; conducts work on mitigating hazardous production factors at workplaces;
- inform contractors and interested parties about the company's activities related to industrial, fire and environmental safety, occupational safety, prevention and preparedness for elimination of emergencies;
- aspire to mitigate hazards and their negative impacts on health of employees of Samruk-Tabigat LLP as well as health of its contractors, visitors and other interested parties;
- improve working conditions to prevent injuries and deterioration in health of employees;
- conduct technical activities on prevention of environmental pollution directed at compliance with pre-determined norms for emission of hazardous substances in to the environment, prevention of emergencies, mitigation of environmental impact of the Company's activities such as generation of hazardous waste;
- use natural resources efficiently during performance of works and services;
- continuously improve the System for industrial safety, occupational safety and environment in accordance with requirements of standards of ISO 14001 and OHSAS 18001.

The Company's management calls upon all employees to make a real contribution to improving occupational safety and environment at production sites. Participation of all the employees in the process of improving the occupational safety management system is the most important condition for the functioning of the system.

The Company's head undertakes the responsibility for implementation of the policy and for allocating resources to its implementation and calls upon all employees of the Company to comply with the policy at all times.

Director of Samruk-Tabigat LLP

Seal: Samruk-Tabigat Limited Liability Partnership, Republic of Kazakhstan, West Kazakhstan Region, Uralsk.

Version No. 2
01.10.2016

Pangaliyev N.M.